DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 7-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Yoshino (JP 09136533).

Yoshino discloses a vehicle air-conditioning device as shown in Fig.8. A drain hose protection element 16 is installed in the passenger compartment. The arrangement of hose and location of element installation are design choices that depend on the vehicle design and style.

3. Claims 7-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Yoneyama et al. (JP 56053914).

Referring to Fig.2, Yoneyama et al. disclose a protection member 6 connected to the dash panel 1 to protect drain hose 4. The arrangement of hose is a design choice which depends on the vehicle design and style.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 1-6 are allowed.

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Kitajima (JP 07329552) is made of record as a drain discharge structure on the partition member between engine compartment and passenger compartment.
